Faces

of the

Fallen

 Frederick George Pitty Barbour [Australian War Memorial]	Born 23rd March 1895 in Sydney, he matriculated March 1915. He came to UQ on an Open scholarship. While in high school he won an athletic prize for best all round athlete. He enlisted on 3rd August 1915 in the 9th Battalion and embarked for active service on 30th December 1915. He was promoted Corporal on 12th September 1916 and Company Quartermaster Sergeant on 16th October 1916. Died of wounds at the age of 21 in Flers, France, on the 25th February 1917.
 Sydney Stanna Bond [Australian War Memorial]	Born 29th July 1895 in Brisbane, he matriculated March 1914 in Arts. Enlisting on 20th March 1915 in the 25th Battalion he embarked for active service on 29th June 1915 but returned to Australia due to sickness, eventually re-embarking on 4th May 1916. He was appointed 2nd Lieutenant on 20th March 1915 and promoted to Lieutenant on 26th June 1915. He was promoted to Captain on 8th January 1917 and was killed in action at the age of 24, in Belgium, on the 9th October 1917.
Philip Gerald Browne	Born 8th June 1895 in Taroom, he matriculated March 1914 in Arts. He enlisted on 24th May 1915 initially in the 25th Battalion, transferring to the 9th Battalion while overseas. He embarked for active service on 30th December 1915 and was promoted to Sergeant on 12th March 1916. He was killed in action at the age of 21, at Pozieres, France, on the 22nd July 1916.
 Kenneth MacKenzie Brydon [Annals of the Brisbane Grammar School]	Born 29th January 1893 in Brisbane, he matriculated March 1912 in Engineering, and was awarded a Bachelor of Engineering degree on 10th May 1916. He enlisted on 25th July 1915 in the 14th Field Engineers and embarked for active service on 30th September 1916. He was appointed 2nd Lieutenant on 1st January 1916 and Lieutenant on 8th July 1917. He was killed in action at the age of 24, at Zillebeke, Belgium, on the 12th October 1917.
 Roger James Cholmeley [University of Queensland Archives]	Lecturer in Classics and Assistant Librarian he was born 4th January 1872 in England, and was a scholar of Corpus Christi College, Oxford. He served in the Imperial Yeomanry, South Africa, 1900 -1902. He joined the 13th Service Battalion, The Cheshire Regiment and was awarded the Military Cross for his actions at Messines. A published author, he was twice wounded during the war. While taking part in the post war North Russia Intervention he drowned on Lake Onega, Russia on the 16th August 1919 at the age of 47.
 Leslie Norman Collin [Annals of the Brisbane Grammar School]	Born 29th October 1894 in Brisbane, he matriculated March 1913 in Arts. He enlisted on 23rd September 1914 and joined the 15th Battalion, embarking for active service on the 22nd December 1914. He was appointed 2nd Lieutenant on the 23rd September 1914, then Lieutenant on the 1st February 1915. He was killed at the age of 20 at Quinn's Post, Gallipoli, on the 9th May 1915.
 William Arthur Cramb [Annals of the Brisbane Grammar School]	A member of the University administration, he was born 10th October 1896 in Maryborough. He enlisted on 23rd July 1915 and embarked for active service on the 5th October 1915. Assigned as a Bearer, for the 7th Field Ambulance, he was killed at the age of 19 at Mouquet Farm, Pozieres, France on the 26th August 1916.

 William Frederick Donisch [University of Queensland Archives]	Born 11th November 1883 in Dalby. He enlisted on the 20th March 1915 in the 25th Battalion and embarked for active service on the 29th June 1915. He was appointed 2nd Lieutenant on 20th March 1915, Lieutenant on 1st June 1915 and Captain on the 24th February 1916. Wounded at Pozieres in France on 29th July 1916, he was killed at the age of 33 on the Somme in France, on the 14th November 1916.
 Walde Gerald Fisher [University of Queensland Archives]	Born 24th August 1894 in Horsham, he won a Government Grammar School scholarship in 1908 and a University scholarship in 1913. Matriculating in March 1913, he graduated with First Class Honours in Classics in 1916. He enlisted on the 28th February 1916 with the 42nd Battalion and embarked for active service on 5th June 1916. He was appointed Lance-Corporal on 28th January 1917, 2nd Lieutenant on 28th February 1917 and Lieutenant on 28th September 1917. He was killed at the age of 23 near Amiens at Sailly-le-Sec, France on the 5th April 1918.
 Sydney Kelso Ford [Annals of the Brisbane Grammar School]	Born 25th October 1893 in Maryborough, he matriculated March 1913 in Engineering. He enlisted on the 14th June 1915 with the 9th Battalion and embarked for active service on the 22nd January 1916. He was appointed 2nd Lieutenant on 29th October 1915 and was killed at the age of 23 at Pozieres, France on the 23rd July 1916. The Ford Memorial Prize presented by the University honours both Sydney and his brother Thomas who also died in the war.
 Trevor Francis [Ipswich City Council Library]	Born 8th June 1890 and from Ipswich, he matriculated March 1912 in Engineering. He enlisted on 24th August 1915 in the 9th Battalion, eventually transferring to the 53rd Battalion and embarked for active service on 3rd September 1915. He was appointed 2nd Lieutenant on 24th August 1915, promoted Lieutenant on 5th July 1916 and Captain on 11th November 1916. Wounded in action, he received the Military Cross for conspicuous bravery on 19th July 1916. He was killed at the age of 28 near Arras, France on the 14th March 1917.
 John Denis Fryer [Fryer Library]	Born 11th September 1895, he matriculated March 1915 in Arts. He enlisted on 10th June 1915 in the 52nd Battalion and embarked for active service on 5th October 1915. He was appointed Lance-Corporal on 13th May 1916, promoted Corporal on 25th September 1916, appointed 2nd Lieutenant on the 25th January 1917 and promoted Lieutenant on 1st July 1917. He was wounded at Hourges, France, 4th August 1918; returned to Australia 1st July 1919 but died on 7th February 1923 at the age of 27 as a result of exposure to poison gas during the war.
George Ferguson Pearman Grant	Born 20th July 1894 in Aberdeenshire, Scotland he matriculated March 1914 in Science, later transferring to Melbourne University and enrolling as a Medical student. He enlisted in Melbourne on 10th October 1917 and embarked for active service on 6th August 1918. A Private in the Australian Army Medical Corps he died of pneumonia at the age of 24 at Burdon Military Hospital, Weymouth, England on the 25th February 1919.
 Russell Walker Grant [Australian War Memorial]	Russell Grant received an ad eundem gradum degree in 1911 from the university. He was born 9th May 1878 in Brisbane and enlisted on 4th September 1915 in the 25th Battalion. Embarking for active service on 12th April 1916, he had been appointed 2nd Lieutenant on 17th January 1916 and then promoted Lieutenant on 20th September 1916. He was killed at the age of 38 near Mouquet Farm at Flers, France on the 15th November 1916.

 Edgar Cullen 'Garry' Hall [The Armidale School]	Known by family and friends as Garry, he was born 2nd May 1893 in Brisbane and matriculated March 1913 in Engineering. He enlisted on the 9th October 1915 and embarked for active service on the 30th September 1916. A member of the 1st Australian Tunnelling Company he was promoted to Sergeant 30th September 1916. He died of wounds at the age of 24 received near Hellfire Corner, Menin Road, Ypres, Belgium, on the 19th September 1917.
 Albert Edward Harper [St. Joseph's Nudgee College]	Born 12th June 1895 in Cooktown, he matriculated March 1913 in Science. He enlisted on the 3rd August 1915 in the 4th Battalion, appointed 2nd Lieutenant on the 1st January 1916 and embarked for active service on the 1st May 1916. He was killed in action at the age of 21 at Longueval, France, on the 31st December 1916.
 Frank Granville Haymen [Annals of the Brisbane Grammar School]	Born 14th September 1891 in Toowoomba, he matriculated March 1911 in Engineering. He enlisted on the 5th August 1914 in the 9th Battalion and was appointed Lieutenant on the 26th August 1914. He embarked for active service on the 24th September 1914 and was killed at the age of 23 at Gaba Tepe, Gallipoli, on the 25th April 1915.
 Charles Chalmers Jameson [Australian War Memorial]	Born 6th December 1895 in Melbourne, he matriculated March 1914 in Arts. He enlisted on the 16th September 1915 with the 42nd Battalion and embarked for active service on the 5th June 1916. Promoted Company-Sergeant-Major (Warrant Officer II) on the 3rd June 1916, he was appointed 2nd Lieutenant on the 6th September 1916. He was killed at the age of 21 near Messines in Belgium on the 4th April 1917.
Trevor Warwick Jones	Born 2nd July 1895 in Warwick, he matriculated March 1915 in Science. Enlisting on the 16th September 1915 in the 41st Battalion, he died in Enoggera Hospital at the age of 20 on the 1st April 1916, prior to embarkation.
Leonard Francis Macdonnell	Born 23rd June 1896 in Gympie, he matriculated March 1914 in Arts. He enlisted on the 11th May 1915 in the Army Medical Corps, 7th Field Ambulance, eventually transferring to the 26th Battalion and embarked for active service 7th June 1915. Promoted Corporal on the 25th February 1917 and 2nd Lieutenant on the 3rd August 1917, he was killed in at the age of 21 in the vicinity of Broodseinde Ridge, Belgium, on the 4th October 1917.
Donald Augustus MacNeill	Born 1st July 1893 and matriculated March 1912 in Engineering. Promoted to 2nd Lieutenant, Royal Flying Corps, he was killed at the age of 23 in France, on the 18th November 1916.

 Frank Arnold Manders [The Queenslander, State Library of Queensland]	Born 15th June 1893 in Melbourne, he matriculated March 1916 in Arts. He enlisted on the 24th December 1915 and eventually transferred to the 3rd Pioneer Battalion. Promoted Sergeant on the 16th May 1916, he embarked for active service on the 6th June 1916 and was appointed 2nd Lieutenant on the 26th February 1917. He was killed in action at the age of 23 in France, on the 4th March 1917.
 John Alexander Noble [Annals of the Brisbane Grammar School]	Born 18th December 1893 in Rockhampton, he matriculated March 1913 in Science. An athlete of some repute, he represented Queensland in an interstate rowing competition in 1913. He enlisted on the 21st May 1915 in the 3rd Field Artillery, eventually transferring to the 2nd Field Artillery and embarked for active service on the 27th September 1915. He was killed in action at the age of 23 at Lagnicourt, France, 23rd April 1917
 Arthur Wellesley Oakes [SMH 1 September 1915]	Born 18th June 1886 in Wilcannia, he received an ad eundem gradum degree in 1911, and enlisted in Rosebery, N.S.W. on the 24th August 1914 in the 1st Light Horse Regiment. He embarked for active service on the 20th October 1914 and was killed in action at the age of 29 at Pope's Hill, Gallipoli, on 7th August 1915.
 William Evelyn Dunsynne Rankin [The Queenslander, State Library of Queensland]	Born 2nd April 1888 in Maryborough, he matriculated March 1913 in Science. Enlisting on the 19th February 1916 in the 31st Battalion, he eventually transferred to the 29th Battalion. He was appointed 2nd Lieutenant on the 16th June 1916 and embarked for active service on the 17th November 1916. Promoted to Lieutenant on 26th May 1917, he was killed at the age of 30 at Morlancourt, France, on the 29th July 1918.
 Wilfred Price Simmonds [Annals of the Brisbane Grammar School]	Born 1st March 1896 in Toowong, he matriculated March 1915 in Science. He enlisted on the 4th January 1916 in the Army Medical Corps but later was transferred to the 25th Battalion. He embarked for active service on the 7th September 1916 and was promoted Corporal on the 24th January 1917. He was killed at the age of 21 near Zonnebeke Church, Passchendaele, Belgium, on the 4th October 1917.
 Harold St George Taylor [Annals of the Brisbane Grammar School]	Born 22nd March 1890, he matriculated March 1912 in Engineering. Making his way to England to enlist, he was promoted to Lieutenant, in The Border Regiment. He was accidently killed at the age of 26 while acting as Regimental Transport Officer on the Somme, on the 15th April 1916.
 William Campbell Thomson [The Queenslander, State Library of Queensland]	Born 10th September 1893 in Townsville, he matriculated March 1913 in Science. He enlisted on the 18th March 1916 in the 4th Cyclists Corps and embarked for active service on the 1st May 1916. He died while at sea of influenza at the age of 22 on the 8th May 1916 off Australian coast.

 Roy Cumestree Trout [Annals of the Brisbane Grammar School]	Born 27th January 1895 in Brisbane, he matriculated March 1914 in Science and enlisted as Lieutenant on 8th August 1916 in the Australian Flying Corps. He embarked for active service on the 25th October 1916, and died at the age of 22 from injuries suffered in an aeroplane accident in Coventry, England, on the 27th July 1917.
 Cyril Cutcliffe Ward [The Queenslander, State Library of Queensland]	Born 4th December 1885 in Warwick, he matriculated 8th April 1911. He enlisted 18th April 1915 in the 26th Battalion and embarked for active service 24th May 1915. Promoted to Sergeant on 29th June 1915, Company Sergeant Major on 1st March 1916, 2nd Lieutenant on 23rd October 1916 and promoted to Lieutenant 8th February 1917. He was awarded the Military Cross for conspicuous gallantry in action several days before he died of wounds at the age of 32 in France, on the 8th March 1917. His brother Leslie Arnold Ward was also killed in the war.
 George Colin Campbell Wilson [The Queenslander, State Library of Queensland]	Born 14th January 1894 in Brisbane, he matriculated March 1914 in Engineering. He enlisted 27th November 1915 in the 41st Battalion and was appointed 2nd Lieutenant on the 1st April 1916 prior to embarking for active service on 17th May 1916. He was promoted Lieutenant 12th May 1917 and died of wounds at the age of 23 in Belgium, on the 7th July 1917.
 Charles Robertson Wonderley [Australian War Memorial]	Born 5th October 1894 in Toowoomba, he matriculated March 1913 in Arts and graduated with First Class Honours in Classics in 1916. He enlisted 11th March 1916, eventually serving in the 47th Battalion and embarked for active service 24th January 1917. Appointed Lance-Corporal on 22nd August 1917, he was awarded the Military Medal for his actions in which he was wounded on 12th October 1917. He was killed in Amiens, France, at the age of 23 on the 5th April 1918. An uncle, Charles Robertson, who attended the Queensland Agricultural College, Gatton was killed at Gallipoli.
 Neville Hunter Young [Annals of the Brisbane Grammar School]	Born 27th February 1895, he matriculated March 1915 in Science. He enlisted 15th May 1916 as a Sergeant, Australian Army Medical Corps (Dental). He died at the age of 21 in Enoggera Hospital, on the 17th November 1916

Queensland Agricultural College, Gatton

 Joseph Bertie Atkinson [Australian War Memorial]	Born in 1892 in Charters Towers and attended Gatton College in 1910. He enlisted 7th October 1915, initially in the 9th Battalion but later transferred to the 31st Battalion. He embarked for active service 23rd March 1916, was wounded on 24th October 1916. He died of wounds at the age of 26 at Bouzincourt, France, on the 23rd April 1918.

 Neil Baxter [Gatton College Magazine, Fryer Library]	Born in Glasgow, Scotland, he came to Australia at the age of 9 and later attended Gatton College in 1909-1910. He enlisted 16th November 1914 in the 15th Battalion and embarked for active service 13th February 1915. He was killed at 21 years of age at Gallipoli on the 26th April 1915. His father, Duncan Baxter, was also killed in the war.
 Louis Hugh Brimblecombe [Gatton College Magazine, Fryer Library]	Born 20th April 1896 in Forest Hill, he attended Gatton College 1911-1913, graduating with a Diploma. He enlisted 7th July 1917 in the 15th Battalion and embarked for active service 29th October 1917. He died of wounds at the age of 22 at Villiers Bretonneux, France, on the 5th August 1918.
 James Monteagle Brown [Annals of the Brisbane Grammar School]	Born 6th May 1888 in Brisbane, he attended Gatton College in 1907. He enlisted 2nd August 1915, eventually ending up in the 25th Battalion. He was appointed Company Sergeant Major on the 19th November 1915, and appointed 2nd Lieutenant on the 9th December 1915. He embarked for active service on the 31st January 1916 and was killed at age of 28 at Pozieres, France on the 29th July 1916.
 Carl Douglas Coffin [Gatton College Magazine, Fryer Library]	Born in 1894 in Mackay, he attended Gatton College 1909-1911, and enlisted on the 22nd September 1914 in the 15th Battalion. Embarking for active service on the 22nd December 1914, he was killed at age of 20 at Gaba Tepe, Gallipoli on the 26th April 1915.
 Errol Claude Cowley [Gatton College Magazine, Fryer Library]	Born in 1895 in Ingham, he attended Gatton College 1910-1913, graduating with a Diploma. He enlisted on 22nd August 1914 in the 2nd Light Horse and embarked for active service on the 24th September 1914. He was wounded at Gallipoli in August 1915. On the 16th May 1916 he was promoted Lance Corporal, Corporal on 17th July 1916 and Sergeant on 12th September 1916. He was killed at the age of 21 at El Risa, Rafah, Egypt on the 9th January 1917.
 Clarence Howard Culpin [Gatton College Magazine, Fryer Library]	Born in 1879 in Stoke Newington, England, his family came to Australia when he was 11. He attending Gatton College from 1897 to 1898 and graduated with a Diploma. He enlisted on the 1st May 1916 in the 26th Battalion and embarked for active service on the 21st October 1916. He was killed at the age of 38 at Buire, France on the 16th April 1918.
 Hew Dalrymple [Annals of the Brisbane Grammar School]	Born 15th February 1885 in Mackay, he attended Gatton College 1902-1904. Later, in June 1914, he graduated from the University of Pennsylvania with a Doctor of Dental Surgery and headed overseas shortly afterwards. A member of the 8th Battalion, Somerset Light Infantry he was killed at the age of 31 at the Somme, France, on the 1st July 1916

 Philip Eric Kemp Devine [Gatton College Magazine, Fryer Library]	Born 1st October 1893 in Pittsworth, he attended Gatton College in 1910. He enlisted on 22nd June 1915 in the 49th Battalion and embarked for active service on 5th October 1915. He was promoted Corporal on 1st March 1916 and Sergeant on the 13th April 1916. He was killed at the age of 22 at Pozieres, France, on the 13th August 1916
 Oscar Thomas Dunn [Gatton College Magazine, Fryer Library]	Born 1890 in Ipswich, he attended Gatton College 1905-1907. He enlisted on the 4th November 1914 in the 5th Light Horse. He embarked for active service on the 21st December 1914 and was killed at the age of 25 at Anzac Cove, Gallipoli, on the 28th June 1915.
 David Fairlie [Gatton College Magazine, Fryer Library]	Born 1895 in Maryborough, he attended Gatton College 1911-1913. He enlisted on the 16th March 1916 in the 52nd Battalion. He embarked for active service on the 16th August 1916. Appointed Lance Corporal on 22nd September 1917, he was killed at the age of 21 at Zonnebeke, Belgium on the 17th October 1917. His brother Edward was also killed in the war.
 Algernon Cedric Francis [Annals of the Brisbane Grammar School]	Born 1896 in Cunnamulla, he attended Gatton College 1912-1914. He enlisted on the 30th November 1915 in the 25th Battalion and embarked for active service on the 30th March 1916. He was killed at the age of 20 at Flers, France on the 14th November 1916.
 George Eric Fulcher [Australian War Memorial]	Born 1890 in Townsville, he attended Gatton College 1907-1910. He enlisted on the 18th October 1916 in the 25th Battalion and embarked overseas for active service on the 23rd December 1916. He died of wounds at the age of 26 received at Polygon Wood, Belgium on the 20th September 1917.
 Harry John Graham [Gatton College Magazine, Fryer Library]	Born 1896 in Brisbane, he grew up in Barcaldine and attended Gatton College from 1911 - 1914. He enlisted on the 3rd September 1914 in the 9th Battalion and embarked for active service on the 24th September 1914. He was two months shy of his 19th birthday when he was killed at Gaba Tepe, Gallipoli on the 25th April 1915.
 Joseph William Ernest Henry [Gatton College Magazine, Fryer Library]	Born 1882 in Maryborough, he attended Gatton College as a bursary winner from 1898 to 1899. He enlisted on the 8th January 1917 in the 41st Battalion and embarked for active service on 7th February 1917. He was killed at the age of 35 at Mont Saint Quentin, France on the 1st September 1918.

 John Gordon Hides [Gatton College Magazine, Fryer Library]	Born 1891 in Cairns, he attended Gatton College 1907 - 1909. He enlisted on the 28th September 1914 in the 2nd Battalion. He embarked for active service on the 22nd December 1914 and died of wounds at the age of 24 received in action at Gallipoli on 7th May 1915.
 George Sedgeley Hodges [Gatton College Magazine, Fryer Library]	Born 1893 in Calcutta, India, he attended Gatton College 1911 - 1912. Enlisting on 16th March 1915 in the 7th Australian Machine Gun Company, he embarked for active service on the 29th June 1915. He was killed at the age of 23 at Broodseinde Ridge, Belgium, on the 8th October 1917
 Charles Victor Izdebski [Gatton College Magazine, Fryer Library]	Born 26th July 1887 in Beaconsfield, South Africa, he attended Gatton College in 1911. He enlisted on the 12th May 1916 in the Special Officers Draft, eventually ending up with the 25th Battalion. Promoted to 2nd Lieutenant on 10th February 1918, he embarked for active service on the 2nd March 1918 and was killed at the age of 31 at Peronne, France, on 2nd September 1918.
 Louis Gerald Leyland [Gatton College Magazine, Fryer Library]	Born 1896 in Barcaldine, he attended Gatton College from 1911-1913, graduating with a Diploma. He enlisted on the 25th November 1915 and joined the 11th Field Artillery. He embarked for active service on 11th May 1916 and was killed at the age of 22 at Frechencourt, France, on 24th April 1918.
 William Jack Linedale [Gatton College Magazine, Fryer Library]	Born 1895 in Irvinebank, he attended Gatton College 1912-1914. He enlisted on the 15th January 1915 in the 11th Light Horse. He embarked for active service on 2nd June 1915 and was killed at age of 22, along with fellow former Gatton student, Timothy O'Neill, at Tel-el-Sheria, Palestine, on 7th November 1917.
 Robin Arthur Mackellar [Gatton College Magazine, Fryer Library]	Born 1889 in Bauple, he attended Gatton College 1904-1906. He enlisted on the 30th December 1915 in the 28th Battalion. He embarked for active service on the 26th February 1916. He was reported as missing in action, later changed to killed in action, at age of 27 at Pozieres, France, on the 29th July 1916.
 Herbert Henry Somerset Marks [Gatton College Magazine, Fryer Library]	Born 29 August 1897 in Townsville, he attended Gatton College in 1915. He enlisted on the 20th May 1916 in the 41st Battalion. He embarked for active service on the 7th September 1916 and was killed at age of 21 at Beschevaine, France, on the 1st September 1918.

 Charles Bute Massy [Gatton College Magazine, Fryer Library]	Born 1891 at Sonoma Station, Bowen River, he attended Gatton College 1909-1910. He enlisted in the 5th Light Horse on the 2nd November 1914 and embarked for active service on the 19th December 1914. He was killed at age of 25 at Romani, Egypt, on the 5th August 1916.
Kevin John Molony	Born 1887 in Yeulba, he attended Gatton College 1904-1905. He enlisted on the 26th January 1915, initially in the 13th Light Horse and embarked for active service 28 May 1915. He eventually transferred to the Australian Provost Corps and was awarded the Military Medal on the 14th October 1917. He died of wounds at the age of 30 in Flanders, Belgium, on the 2nd November 1917.
 Timothy James O'Neill [Gatton College Magazine, Fryer Library]	Born in 1889 in Brisbane, he grew up in Bundaberg and attended Gatton College 1906-1908, and was awarded a Diploma. He enlisted on the 10th April 1915 in the 11th Light Horse. He embarked for active service on the 4th October 1915 and was promoted Lance Corporal on 9th July 1916. He was killed at the age of 28, along with former Gatton student William Linedale, at Tel-el-Sheria, Palestine, on the 7th November 1917. His brother Peter also died during the war.
 Thomas Real O'Sullivan [Gatton College Magazine, Fryer Library]	Born 1891 in Brisbane, he attended Gatton College in 1909. He enlisted on the 23rd February 1916 in the 41st Battalion. He embarked for active service on the 23rd December 1916, was promoted Lance Corporal on 23rd August 1917, Sergeant on 26th October 1917 and 2nd Lieutenant on 1st November 1917. He was killed at the age of 26 at Sailly-le-Sec, France, on the 17th April 1918.
 Noel Plunkett Power [Gatton College Magazine, Fryer Library]	Born 1893 in Gympie, he attended Gatton College 1910-1911. He enlisted on the 14th September 1914 in the 4th Battalion. Embarking for active service on the 20th October 1914, he was promoted 2nd Lieutenant on 5th August 1916, and promoted Lieutenant on 1st February1917. He was killed at the age of 24 at Zonnebeke, Belgium on the 4th October 1917.
 Charles Frederick Pratt [Gatton College Magazine, Fryer Library]	Born 1894 in Grimsby, England, he attended Gatton College 1911-1913. He enlisted on the 30th September 1914 in the 9th Battalion and embarked for active service on the 22nd December 1914. He was killed at the age of 21 at Gaba Tepe, Gallipoli on the 28th June 1915.
 Gordon Holmes Robertson [Gatton College Magazine, Fryer Library]	Born 1886 in Toowoomba, he attended Gatton College in 1903. He enlisted on the 19th August 1914 in the 2nd Light Horse and embarked for active service on the 24th September 1914. He was killed at the age of 29 at Gaba Tepe, Gallipoli, on the 13th May 1915. He was an uncle to Charles Robertson Wonderley.

 Francis Edwin Saunders [Gatton College Magazine, Fryer Library]	Born 1893 in London, he attended Gatton College 1911-1913, where received a Diploma. He enlisted on the 29th December 1914 and was originally in the 4th Light Horse Field Ambulance before transferring to the 14th Field Engineers. He was killed at the age of 23 at Longueval, France on the 25th October 1916.
 Andrew Anderson Scott [Gatton College Magazine, Fryer Library]	Born 1890 in Taroom, he attended Gatton College 1906-1907. He enlisted on the 22nd September 1914 in the 5th Light Horse, embarked for active service but returned to Australia on account of illness. Once he recuperated he transferred to the 25th Battalion and again headed overseas on the 8th August 1916. He was promoted to 2nd Lieutenant on the 3rd August 1917 and was killed at age of 27 at Zonnebeke, Belgium on the 4th October 1917.
 John Inglis Smith [Gatton College Magazine, Fryer Library]	Born 1895 in Sydney, he lived in Townsville and attended Gatton College 1913-1914. He enlisted 15th March 1915 in the 15th Battalion and embarked for active service on the 12th June 1915. He was killed at age of 20 at Gallipoli on 8th August 1915.
 Robert Harold Warburton Stainton [Gatton College Magazine, Fryer Library]	Born 1895 in Cooran, he attended Gatton College 1910. He enlisted on the 9th June 1915 in the 26th Battalion and embarked for active service on the 29th June 1915. He died in hospital of pneumonia at the age of 19 at Alexandria, Egypt, on the 2nd December 1916.
 Harold Rowton Stevens [Gatton College Magazine, Fryer Library]	Born 1889 in Colton Vale, Mackay, he attended Gatton College 1904-1907, and was awarded a Diploma. He enlisted on the 30th January 1915 in the 11th Light Horse. He embarked for active service on the 20th August 1915 and was killed at age of 27 at El Ferdan, Romani, Egypt, on the 7th August 1916.
 George Malcolm Waddell [Gatton College Magazine, Fryer Library]	Born 1894 in Charters Towers, but was raised in Gympie. He attended Gatton College 1910-1912, and was awarded a Diploma. He enlisted on the 21st August 1914 in the 2nd Light Horse. He embarked for active service on the 24th September 1914, was promoted Lance Corporal on the 5th May 1916, and promoted Corporal on the 18th October 1916. He was killed at age of 22 at Maghdaba, Egypt, on the 23rd December 1916.
 Edward Geoffrey White [The Queenslander, State Library of Queensland]	Born 1893 in Kent, England, he attended Gatton College 1910-1912. He enlisted on the 2nd September 1914 in the 9th Battalion and embarked for active service on the 24th September 1914. He took part in the initial landing at Gallipoli and was twice wounded before being killed at age of 22 at Gaba Tepe, Gallipoli on the 28th June 1915.

 Graeme Lang Wilson [Annals of the Brisbane Grammar School]	Born 1890 in Brisbane, he attended Gatton College 1906-1909, and was awarded a Diploma. He enlisted on the 2nd September 1914 in the 2nd Light Horse and embarked for active service on the 24th September 1914. Promoted Lance Corporal on the 17th January 1915, he was killed at the age of 25 at Quinn's Post, Gallipoli on the 19th May 1915.

Photograph credits:

Australian War Memorial
Brisbane Grammar School "Annals of the Brisbane Grammar School, 1869-1922"
Fryer Library, University of Queensland
Ipswich City Council
John Oxley Library, State Library of Queensland
St. Joseph's Nudgee College, Brisbane
The Armidale School, Armidale, N.S.W.
University of Queensland Archives

RAMS
RECORDS AND ARCHIVES MANAGEMENT SERVICES

THE UNIVERSITY OF QUEENSLAND
AUSTRALIA

2014