1. Long quote:

"Private Bernard Flewell-Smith is recommended for conspicuous gallantry and fine initiative in action near Hamel Wood on the 4th of July 1918. His section commander was wounded early in the engagement, and he at once assumed command of his section and led them with magnificent courage and skill. On reaching the objective his Platoon Commander and all NCO's of his platoon with the exception of his Platoon Sergeant were out of action, and Private Flewell-Smith took the initiative, rallied all the men in his vicinity, dispersed the enemy remaining in front, and consolidated the position. His great coolness and fine leadership were an inspiration to all about him, and undoubtedly he cleared up a very difficult situation (AWM, 1918)"

2. Long quote:

The Australian War Memorial holds Bernard's original commendation for his Military Medal, it was first published in 1918 and it reads:

*"Private Bernard Flewell-Smith is recommended for conspicuous gallantry and fine initiative in action near Hamel Wood on the 4th of July 1918. His section commander was wounded early in the engagement, and he at once assumed command of his section and led them with magnificent courage and skill.
