SAMUEL BAYES WARD

Researching for a book of this size is a mammoth task - simply reading and identifying images from over 100 years ago can be a challenge. What makes this even more difficult, is when an Old Boy is 'identified', only to find out that an error was made all the way back in 1917! In the original file, Sam B. Ward was identified as being on the left, however, a correction in the following edition of The Queenslander stated that he was in fact on the right! Ward served for four years at the Front, where he was twice wounded. When he came home, he worked as a surveyor for Messrs. E. Bostock & Sons of Ipswich - the family of Mrs Maude Kerr, wife of the Headmaster.
